

UFO INVADES MICHIANA SHOWCASE III

The scene was the Third Annual Michiana Showcase in South Bend, Indiana. It was not a competition but a showcase of original bands. All the bands gave fine performances.

7th Floor rocked the house. "It was like watching a space ship land and invade the world!" raved one excited fan. As the show took off like a runaway train, the audience was mesmerized. From the opening scene with Julie Ward on the train tracks to the final refrains of Let Go, they were enraptured by the professional presentation.

THE THIRD ANNUAL
Michiana Showcase

FEATURING THE FINEST IN MICHIANA'S ORIGINAL MUSIC:

7th floor

Saturday

April 20, at

Z.B. Falcons

323 S. Sheridan

(Corner Western & Sheridan)

This true story was as enlightening as it was entertaining. 7th Floor turned their audacity to dream into an extremely powerful rock opera. Many old fans and new fans alike were impressed by the depth of talent, use of original costumes, drama and lighting that enhanced this moving and inspiring show. As the crowd danced and sang along to the chorus of Let Go, 7th Floor concluded their performance to a rousing ovation. Their spaceship descended amidst thunderous applause as they sure-handedly won over the diverse audience. Watch out world: 7th Floor has arrived!!!